

FAQ's

What is the RCAP National Conference?

The RCAP National Conference is an opportunity for RCAP staff from across our six regions and the national office to convene, network, and provide a platform for continued learning that will improve our abilities and capacity to assist the communities we work with every day.

Will the National Conference be offered virtually?

The 2022 National Conference will be held in-person and there will not be a virtual option. We are going to do a "Best of" series right after the conference that will be all-virtual that will include video highlights + discussion groups, so virtual folks can get a taste.

Who can attend the RCAP National Conference?

The RCAP National Conference is designed for RCAP Technical Assistance Providers from across the country and US territories. Anyone from the RCAP network across our six regions is welcome to attend. Ultimately, however, attendance is at the discretion of your program manager.

What is the RCAP Awards Lunch?

RCAP will be awarding the following awards Outstanding Mentor Award, Bill French Bridge Builder Award, Outstanding Service Award, Pillar Award, RCAP Hall of Fame, Outstanding Rookie of the Year, TAP of the Year, The Robert Stewart Leadership Award, and photo contest winners.

What is the dress code?

We want you to be comfortable so you can enjoy your meeting experience! Therefore, business casual dress is strongly encouraged. We suggest bringing a light sweater or jacket with you during the day as the meeting rooms are air conditioned.

How can I become a speaker at the National Conference?

At this time, the program at the 2022 RCAP National Conference is finalized. Proposals were due by February 3, 2022, we're sorry you missed this deadline. However, RCAP does have a number of speaking opportunities throughout the year. If you have specific questions about getting involved as a speaker with RCAP, please contact Jeff Oxenford at joxenford@rcap.org.

Are there any sponsorship opportunities?
